

House Resolution No. 1624

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed by exceptionally long and productive lives; and

Whereas, born on April 3, 1915, into the family of Clarence and Hettie Huddleston, Beulah Chronister will celebrate her Ninetieth Birthday with a gathering of family members and friends at the Alton Senior Citizens center on April 3, 2005; and

Whereas, after an enjoyable childhood filled with all types of educational and rewarding activities, Beulah Chronister established a family of her own through her joyful marriage to Richard “Bud” Chronister who loved and cherished her with all of his heart until his death; and

Whereas, the marital union of Beulah and Bud Chronister was blessed with a wonderful daughter, Phillis Jane Webb, who resides in Hillsboro; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Beulah Chronister enjoys a life which encompassed most of the twentieth century with its first flights by heavier-than-air craft, worldwide turmoil associated with World War I and World War II, rise of the automobile as America’s preferred mode of travel, demise of the Soviet Union as the Cold War drew to a close, and shift from a primarily agricultural economy to one dependent upon industry and then upon the service and information sectors; and

Whereas, Beulah Chronister is a retired teacher who served for thirty-three years, a member of Macedonia Baptist Church, and a volunteer for Alton Senior Citizens; and

Whereas, Beulah Chronister also is the well-deserved recipient of a President’s Volunteer Service Award from the President’s Council on Service and Civic Participation, USA Freedom Corps, and its Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP); and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses to commemorate momentous events in the lives of such stellar citizens as Beulah Chronister:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the joyous arrival of the Ninetieth Birthday of Beulah Chronister and to convey to her this legislative body’s heartiest congratulations upon attaining such a rare milestone in life and our best wishes for many more celebratory events in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Beulah Chronister of Alton, Missouri.
